THE REAL QUESTION.

The real question of disease is "Can I be cured?" If you or anyone dear to you is losing strength, flesh, energy and vitality, if you are wise you will not spend time trying to figure out just what name to call the disease by.

It is almost impossible to draw the line where debility and weakness merge into consumption. Your trouble may not be consumption to-day, but you don't know what it may become to-morrow. Hundreds of people have been restored to robust health by Dr. Pierce's marvelous "Golden Medical Discovery" after reputable physicians had pronounced them consumptive beyond hope.

Were they in consumption? Nobody can ever know.

The important point is that they were hopelessly ill but this matchless "Discovery" restored and saved them.

"I was not able to do hardly any work at all," says Mrs. Jennie Dingman, of Vanburen, Kalkaska Co., Mich., in a most interesting letter to Dr. Pierce. "I had pain in my left side and back, and had headache all the time. I tried your medicine and it helped me. Last spring I had a bad cough; I got so bad I had to be in bed all the time.

"My husband thought I had consumption. He wanted me to get a doctor, but I told him if it was consumption they could not help me. We thought we would try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and before I had taken one bottle the cough was stopped and I have had no more of it returning. Your medicine is the best I have taken."

Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce. He will send you good, fatherly, professional advice, in a plain sealed envelope, absolutely free. His nearly 40 years experience as chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel, at Buffalo, N. Y., has made him an expert in chronic diseases.

Constipation causes and aggravates many serious diseases. It is thoroughly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many May See But It Takes Genius to Realize.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was.

Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery.

Recent scientific research has put its finger on the "cause" of Dandruff, Falling Hair, and consequent Baldness, and has unearthed a tiny germ which eats the life from the roots of human hair.

Newbro's Herpicide destroys this germ and consequently restores the hair to its natural state.

MANACLING OF DAVIS.

"In my opinion the shackling of Jefferson Davis at Fortress Monroe was entirely unnecessary," is the declaration of Rev. J. W. Sanderson, of Beaver Dam, Wis., who was officer of the day at Fortress Monroe the day before the famous prisoner was manacled by order of Gen. Nelson A. Miles, then in command of that post. The controversy which has been kept up in the newspapers the last two weeks between General Miles and Mrs. Davis has stirred the memories of the few old soldiers who were stationed at Fortress Monroe at that time.

Captain Sanderson was at the fort the day Mr. Davis was brought there, had an intimate association with him almost daily during the time of his incarceration, and it was to him that Capt. Jerome Titlow, who carried out General Miles's order, related the circumstances within 10 minutes after Mr. Davis was put in manacles.

"I was at my quarters on the evening when it occurred," said Mr. Sanderson, "I was about to sit down when Capt. Jerome Titlow, of the Third Pennsylvania Artillery, of which I was a member, entered.

"'I have just been obliged to perform a disagreeable duty,' said Captain Titlow to me. 'I have just returned from putting Jefferson Davis in irons.'

"Captain Titlow then went on to relate how it had happened.

"'I had with me a sergeant and a blacksmith,' said Captain Titlow, 'and when I reached the casemate I found Mr. Davis sitting on his cot.

"'"What?" he said. "Do you mean to say that General Miles intends to place irons on my limbs? I, as an officer of the regular army and as former Secretary of War, wish to inform you, Captain Titlow, that you, as an officer of the army, would be justified in refusing to carry out such an order."

"'But the sergeant grabbed Mr. Davis from behind, threw him over on the bed, and in a twinkling the shackles were clasped on.'

"Captain Titlow then told me that Davis, when he realized that the deed had been done, broke down and wept. He said that he felt sorry for him, but had no other altenative than to do as he had been ordered."

A Maniac Husband.

A sudden outburst of insanity turns out after all to have been the only cause of the murder and suicide in which Druggist John E. Chatham slew his mother-in-law, Mrs. Isaac Abrams; murderously assaulted his wife and then took his own life in Chester, Pa., Mrs. Chatham, whose life hung by a slender threat, has at last been able to talk. Her story discloses circumstances most dramatic, as follows:

Mrs. Coatham says her husband, without a moment's warning, ran into the dining-room from behind the prescription counter, where he was preparing a prescription. He was in an insane fury, mumbled incoherently and carried a hammer which he had used to open boxes. He ran at his mother-in-law, struck her a blow on the temple and she fell to the floor. The infuriated man then picked from the table a butcher knife and attacked Mrs. Chatham. She grappled with him, and in a struggle succeeded in wrenching the knife from his hand. The attack was then renewed with the hammer, and he rained blow after blow upon the head of his wife and baby. In protecting the child the mother received many of the cruel blows on her hands and shoulders, and finally fell unconscious to the floor. Mrs. Chatham thinks she was struck 10 or 11 times, and the only thing that prevented her from being killed outright was her resistance.

World's Bloodiest Battle.

The estimate by a correspondent who is with General Kuropatkin that the losses on both sides at the battle of Mukden were not less than 200,000 men, makes it appear that this combat was by far the bloodiest ever known.

The largest number of troops ever before engaged in battle was at Arbela, in 334 B. C., when 35,000 Greeks, under Alexander, put to rout a horde of undisciplined Persians believed to have numbered 950,000.

Before the present war the bloodiest battle in modern history was that of Leipzig, in 1813, when 300,000 Germans defeated 171,000 French. The Germans lost 47,000 and the French 60,000.

The greatest battle ever fought in this country was that of Gettysburg, in 1863, when 117,000 federals fought 68,000 Confederates. The losses, including prisoners, were 17,000 federals and 27,000 Confederates. The Confederates lost 40 per cent. of their force, being the largest percentage of loss ever known.

The number of men engaged at Mukden is variously estimated at from 800,000 to 1,000,000. The percentage of loss appears to have been between 20 and 25 per cent.

Pleasant and Harmless.

TWO OPEN LETTERS

IMPORTANT TO MARRIED WOMEN

Mrs. Mary Dimmick of Washington tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well.

It is with great pleasure we publish the following letters, as they convincingly prove the claim we have so many times made in our columns that Mrs.

Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., is fully qualified to give helpful advice to sick women. Read Mrs. Dimmick's letters.

Her first letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I have been a sufferer for the past eight years with a trouble which first originated from painful menstruation—the pains were excruciating, with inflammation and ulceration of the womb. The doctor says I must have an operation or I cannot live. I do not want to submit to an operation if I can possibly avoid it. Please help me."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, Washington, D. C.

Her second letter;

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"You will remember my condition when I last wrote you, and that the doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I received your kind letter and followed your advice very carefully and am now entirely well. As my case was so serious it seems a miracle that I am cured. I know that I owe not only my health but my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to your advice. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I wish every suffering woman would read this letter and realize what you can do for them."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 59th and East Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.

How easy it was for Mrs. Dimmick to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and how little it cost her—a two-cent stamp. Yet how valuable was the reply! As Mrs. Dimmick says—it saved her life.

Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of just such letters as the above, and offers ailing women helpful advice.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.

William Shaffer, a brakeman of Dennison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "I used many remedies," he says. "Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a clam." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember, that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided by keeping their digestion in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, sells and guarantees them at 50c a bottle.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflammed tissue to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tried of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cts. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York, will mail it.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, MAR. 13, 1905.

AN OBJECT LESSON of the vascilating and inconsistent course of the present administration is shown by the letters of Mr. Park Agnew and Secretary Shaw, published in the local columns of today's Gazette. On Friday last the President, at the meeting of his Cabinet, made the announcement which was later in the day given to the press by Secretary Cortelyou, that "the policy of the administration, for the present at least, would be to retain in office present incumbents without regard to their length of service." Previously Mr. Roosevelt had frequently stated that in making appointments the worth, merit and qualifications of the men would be given first consideration. Yet on the very day he made his declaration concerning the retention of efficient officeholders, he asked for the resignation of Mr. Park Agnew, internal revenue collector of this district, who has efficiently held the office for eight years, whose experience has made him a valuable officer and whose qualifications for the position are acknowledged by the President's own Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Shaw, in the letters above referred to. The reason for Mr. Agnew's removal was that his place might be given to a man who had rendered Col. Slemp political assistance during the last campaign. Mr. Roosevelt seems to have accepted the modern theory that politicians cannot afford to be consistent.

NEVER BEFORE at the beginning of an administration has there been such a rush of applicants for diplomatic and consular places as at present, and never before have so few of these places been available, owing partly to the fact that the President has already promised many to personal friends and partly to the policy of retaining in office incumbents who have made good records. Ordinarily, it is said, there are from ten to a dozen applicants for each foreign appointment at the beginning of an administration; at present there are fully 20. This rush is explained by the extension of the civil service rules to practically all other desirable places, although for several years the demand for appointments abroad from men of wealth has been steadily on the increase. The occupancy of an official post, even in the consular service, gives a social standing abroad it is difficult to obtain otherwise. It is for this reason that Americans with social ambition and wealth to back it up are so eager to get these appointments.

THE members of the rivers and harbors committee of the House of Representatives and their wives sailed from New York Saturday on the army transport Sumner for Porto Rico on a tour of inspection. The party will on its return visit at Santo Domingo and Cuba, arriving at New Orleans April 1. It seems that nearly every Senator and Representative can now have a summer vacation at public expense. The naval committees visit the northern navy yards; southern navy yards never require inspection in hot weather. The military committees have western posts to look at, taking in Yellowstone Park on the way; the foreign affairs committees must needs inspect boundary monuments; Alaska has to be visited every summer; and soon Secretary Taft is going to take about forty Senators and Representatives to the Philippines to study benevolent assimilation in operation in these far away "possessions."

The New York State Board of Agriculture has just concluded chemical analyses of food stuffs and confectionery on sale at New York city, and reports that 90 per cent. contained adulterants. Two hundred samples of candy purchased in the stores were found to contain paraffin, especially in caramels, chocolates and molasses candy. Glucose was found in nearly all cheap grades, while red and blue analine had been used for coloring and varnish to give a gloss. Of sixty-nine catsups, all but one showed artificial coloring and all contained benzoic acid. Blackberry jelly proved to be apple juice and artificial coloring. Maple sugar showed 90 per cent. of cane sugar. All of these facts were well known to the members of the Senate, but that body declined to pass a pure food bill though it had been passed by the people's direct representatives in the House.

WHAT may mark the beginning of a revolt among the younger liberal element of the Mormon Church occurred at Salt Lake last week when former Senator Cannon was excommunicated by the local bishop for his attacks on the head of the church. Mr. Cannon recently became editor of the Salt Lake Tribune, and in the course of his editorials he has declared that President Smith is not a prophet of God, and that his idol is Mammon.

CANDIDATES for the presidential nomination in 1908 are springing up with such rapidity as to promise a harder preliminary campaign in the next three years than was probably ever known before. President Roosevelt's declaration, immediately after the election, that he will not be a candidate under any condition or circumstance, has left the field open to every republican of prominence who thinks he has a chance of election.

THE legislature of Kansas passed resolutions last week virtually charging that the report of Commissioner of Corporations Garfield on the beef packing industry is a fake, and their conclusions were quite natural. In view of the fact that Mr. Garfield is expected to investigate the oil industry in Kansas, the legislature wants President Roosevelt to "appoint a competent person" for trust investigations.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., March 13.

The War Department in a few days will take action on the joint resolution of Congress authorizing the return of the Confederate battle flags captured during the civil war. Major General Ainsworth, the military secretary, who will have charge of the return of these flags, only this morning officially received a copy of the joint resolution. All of these flags are now stored away in the "flag room" of the War Department, and it will probably take several days to sort them out and ascertain from the records exactly to whom they should be returned. General Ainsworth said this morning that he would take particular care to see that there was no ceremony at the War Department when the various flags were returned. All the ceremonies will be at the other end. The flags will simply be shipped by the War Department to their owners with an official letter quoting the act authorizing the return.

The open session of the Senate today lasted but a few minutes. The impression about the Capitol is that the extra session of the Senate will not end this week.

Mr. Rixey will be notified in a day or two that a delegation from Alexandria and vicinity will soon wait on him to urge him to use his every endeavor to have the internal revenue office kept in Alexandria and not removed elsewhere.

Three women who voted for President Roosevelt and rode horseback thirty miles over the prairies to cast their ballots, called at the White House this morning and shook hands with the man they helped elect. Mrs. S. L. Wiley and her two daughter were the visitors and they were accompanied by the husband and father whose name they bear.

Representative Bartholdt of Missouri called upon the President this morning to introduce J. Milton Turner the colored politician from St. Louis, who is a candidate for the place of Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia. Turner claims the distinction of being the first colored man to receive a position in the consular service. Gen. Grant made him Minister to Liberia.

The Supreme Court of the United States today in the case of Samuel M. Clyatt, vs. the United States in an opinion read by Justice Brewer, held the United States peonage laws prohibiting arrest, holding for and and return to peonage to be constitutional, but it reversed the decision of the United States Circuit Court for the 5th Circuit holding the case in question to come under these laws. In this case two negroes were arrested under Georgia warrants in Florida and returned to Georgia. The charge was that they "were returned to a condition of peonage." There was no testimony, Justice Brewer said, that the parties had ever been in a state of peonage, therefore, there could be no "return" to that condition. On that ground the court below was reversed and the case was remanded for a new trial. The sentence in the case was four years imprisonment. Justice Harlan dissented from the latter portion of the opinion.

Two dispatches have been received by the State Department from Minister Griscom, dated Tokio, March 12. They read as follows: "Officially reported Japanese army captured 20,000 prisoners before the 11th. Another official report says the Russian losses are over 155,000, of which 40,000 are prisoners, 26,500 dead on the field and about 90,000 other casualties."

Mrs. J. A. Jefferies, of Columbus, Ohio, created a mild sensation in the National Mothers' Congress today when she declared that the mothers of Norwalk, Ohio, had become afflicted with a mania for card playing and gambling. So addicted had they become to the practice, she said, that they were neglecting their children and spending almost every afternoon at the card table. Her announcement that a Mothers' Club was neutralizing the evil and that it was steadily gaining in membership was met with an outburst of applause.

The following nominations were sent to the Senate today by the President: Joseph Crass, of N. J., to be United States District Judge for the District of New Jersey. Lieutenant Colonel Littleton, W. T. Waller, to be Colonel in the Marine Corps.

The Senate in executive session today confirmed the nomination of Frank H. Hitchcock, of Mass., to be 1st Assistant Postmaster General.

Secretary Taft this morning denied the report that yellow fever is on the increase in Panama and the canal strip.

The democratic caucus of the Tennessee legislature will meet on Wednesday night for the purpose of nominating a successor to the late United States Senator William B. Bate. There has as yet been no announcement of any candidates, though it is generally believed that Gov. J. B. Frazier and ex-Govs. Benton McMillin and Robert L. Taylor will be in the fight.

Judge Bank, in Fort Madison, Iowa, on Saturday sentenced Arthur E. Ireland, organizer for the American Federation of Labor, who was convicted of assault upon Axel Mathison, a non-union machinist, last July, to pay a fine of $200 and the costs of the trial, amounting to about $1,000, and to stand committed to jail until the fine and costs are paid.

Mad with rage because of his defeat in a lawsuit in which K. Fill, the man whom he pronounced his bitterest enemy, had been victorious, and swearing vengeance against him and his family, George Schistler, a teamster, armed himself with a rifle in Denver yesterday, and started out to do murder. As a result of the affray, Schistler shot and killed his neighbor, his wife and son and then set fire to their house. He was shot dead after seriously wounding two policemen and his wife dropped dead on hearing of the tragedy.

The Washington meeting of the American Tract Society was held yesterday in the President's church, the Grace Reformed, Rev. Mr. Schick, pastor. Justice Brewer, honorary vice president, presided and made a brief address, setting forth the important work carried forward by the society. President Roosevelt delivered the address and he dwelt upon the importance of the work of the colporteurs at the various ports in order to promptly reach the immigrants and bring them under proper influences and told what men with great fortunes can do.

Its front on B street will be 476 feet 2 inches, on New Jersey avenue 470 feet 1 inch, C street 348 feet 5 inches and First street 452 feet and 5 inches. It is to occupy the entire square lying southeast of and diagonally opposite the Capitol. It will be three stories in height, and when complete will contain 436 offices, which are to be forever dedicated to the uses of members of the House of Representatives.

THE WAR.

As at Liaoyang and at the Shahke river, the genius of Kuropatkin has shone brightest in retreat. In the face of a staggering defeat, he has broken the Japanese cordon north of Mukden and through the breach has marched perhaps two-thirds of his enormous army. The rest of his army, with most of his heavy artillery and supplies fell into the hands of the Japanese. For the present such of the army as has escaped is safe at Tie Pass, but the Japanese announce their intention to continue the pursuit until the whole of the Russian army is either captured or annihilated. The Russians are expected to continue their retreat to Harbin.

A Russian correspondent telegraphs from Tie Pass that the casualties in the battle were over 100,000. The Russian army in its retreat from Mukden was shelled by the Japanese from both flanks and suffered great losses.

Kuropatkin personally commanded the Russian rear guard and fought a dogged retiring action all the way from Mukden to Tie Pass.

The Russian government announces that it has no intention of suing for peace.

A dispatch from Paris says: French pressure upon her ally may force Russia to ask Japan for terms of peace. The Temps, which usually reflects the sentiment in official quarters, printed a notable leading editorial Saturday appealing to Russia to accept the inevitable and make the best peace possible. The paper declares that Russia's sacrifice will be less than that of France at the end of the Franco-German war, as France struggled against the dismemberment of her own country, whereas Russia struggles to hold Manchuria, which she has formally promised to return to China. Moreover, the battle of Mukden definitely establishes Japan's advantage, and therefore self-interest demands that Russia recognize her defeat and abandon the struggle.

Russia will not give up the fight. Notwithstading the peace talk in St. Petersburg and Paris, the Czar has decided to raise a new army, reorganize the forces in Manchuria and order the second Russian Pacific fleet to sail for the far East. It is admitted at the Russian capital that it will be difficult to mobilize another army, and some officials believe it impossible.

Russian officials say that only in the event of Japan tendering "moderate" terms and reognizing Russia's power in the far East can peace be easily arranged. The Czar and his counselors figure on Japan being unable to stand the financial strain.

General Kuropatkin has assumed all responsibility for his defeat. His excuse is that he miscalculated the Japanese strength. The Czar will accept his resignation as commander-in-chief. General Grodekoff may be selected to succeed him. The Japanese are in touch with the Russians at Tie Pass, and Field Marshal Oyama is pushing the advantage gained, determined, if possible, to drive the Russians from their latest shelter and force the fighting to a finish.

The full extent of the Russian disaster is still unknown. Kuropatkin reports that 1,190 officers and 46,391 men are missing at roll call.

According to Oyama's latest reports the Russians taken prisoner in the Shahke district alone number 40,000 including Major General Nakhimoff. The Russians killed and wounded in the same district number 90,000. They left 26,500 dead on the field.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the London Times says that the remnants of General Kuropatkin's armies are gradually reaching Tieling. General Kuropatkin, in reporting the fact, asks the Czar's gracious permission to hand over the command, alleging his urgent need of physical and mental rest. The official dispatches record the loss of nearly 500 guns, scores of regimental colors, and over 200,000 men.

General Oyama has captured a Russian column at the Pu river.

In London it is reported French and German bankers have issued an ultimatum to Russia that she must make peace either with Japan or at home before she can expect further financial assistance.

A dispatch from New Orleans says that Commander-in-Chief Lee, of the Confederate Union, has issued a proclamation thanking Congress for the return of the Confederate flags and stating that there is no longer any north or south.

Virginia News.

Governor Montague has designated Saturday, March 25, as Arbor Day, and requests the general observance thereof.

The Prince William, Manassas, new hotel, recently erected by Mr. Robert Portner at a cost of over $30,000, was formally opened last week. The hotel will be managed after the plan of the Portner Flats at Washington.

T. Landon Gill, the seventeen-year-old son of W. S. Gill, who strangely disappeared from Richmond March 1, leaving a note bidding his parents good-by, Saturday wrote from New York, saying he had secured a position in a big department store, but would visit his aunt, Mrs. W. A. King, in Lebanon, Pa., before going to work.

William Woodland Conner, aged 28 years, who went to Norfolk three years ago from Somerset county, Md., committed suicide Saturday by locking himself in a small second-story room and turning on illuminating gas. The loss of the love of his wife, by whom the suicide, according to statements by members of his family and others, was deserted seven weeks after his marriage, is given as the cause of the tragedy.

By the refusal of the Court of Appeals to grant a writ of error in the case of the Portsmouth Social and Athletic Club, that institution is put out of operation. The charter of the club was revoked by the Corporation Court of Portsmouth because the club was convicted of selling liquor to others than members of the club. The further charge was made that the club was organized to evade the law governing the sale of liquor.

Bettie Smith accidentally shot and killed her half sister, Bertha Nowlin, at Nowlin Mills, Franklin county, Saturday. The girls were playing with a shotgun, when Miss Smith, as a joke, threatened to shoot the other. With a laugh Miss Nowlin told her to fire, adding that the gun was empty. But the gun was loaded, and the Nowlin girl fell with the load of shot in her head. The case was investigated by the coroner and pronounced an accident.

It is likely that the State democratic committee will meet in Richmond early in May to decide on the date for holding a primary to nominate State officers. It has been reported that the chairman, Mr. J. Taylor Ellyson, who is a candidate for lieutenant governor, will at that time resign the chairmanship, which he has held for fourteen years. In case Mr. Ellyson does resign there will be an effort among the friends of Joseph T. Lawless to have him made State chairman.

The Interborough Strike.

Realizing that their fight against the Interborough Company had been lost, the old employes of the subway and elevated railways Saturday crowded the offices of the company seeking their former positions. Some 3,000 men applied for reinstatement, but not more than 500 were accepted, the officials claiming to be satisfied with the men who had enabled them to break the strike and announcing that in future the rules as to sobriety would be more strictly adhered to.

All applicants were notified that they would have to go to work as new men, which means that those who went on strike would lose their seniority and increased pay that they had won for length of service.

Messrs. Jencks and Pepper, the strike leaders, admitted that the fight had been lost and advised the men to get back their positions if they could. Jencks held the press responsible for the result, contending that the papers had aroused a hostile sentiment. The strikers bitterly denounce their leaders, saying the men were deceived by them

Riotous Peasants.

The destruction of government property by rioters in central and south Russia is extending. Another sugar refinery in Kioff province has been burned. Refineries and distilleries are chiefly marked for destruction because both industries, even when nominally private, are controlled by the government. Refugee land owners and agents who have reached the towns state that hordes of peasants visit estates and say to the owners: "We have come back to take our land." If the owner does not resist, he is sent to the nearest town in a cart. If he hides or resists, his property is wrecked. There is no sign of troops to check the lawless element.

The authorities of Warsaw have decided to order the schools to reopen on Tuesday, and unless the boys return within a week, to expel them. It is expected that the majority will continue on strike, and hence parents have appealed to the minister of education at St. Petersburg to keep the schools closed until the situation is clearer.

Judge Mann.

Judge Mann in Petersburg Saturday night gave out a statement concerning his candidacy for Governor. He said: "Education, good roads, business methods, and the liquor question are the great public questions before our people," and added: "My name will be presented to the primary, and if the advices which come to me are correct I shall win. My campaign will be conducted upon a platform with education, good roads, business methods, and a reasonable regulation of the liquor traffic as the leading planks, and I submit the question to the people of Virginia standing upon my record and expressed conviction?"

Judge Mann says he is proud of being the author of the Mann liquor law, which has greatly reduced the sale of liquor in the State. He says he cannot believe that the democratic party is ready to take the position that no man can be nominated for Governor of Virginia because he entertains the views which the judge holds on the regulation of the liquor traffic.

Letter to Rev. J. P. Stump,

Alexandria, Va.

Rev. Sir: Three churches in Baldwinsville, N. Y., have had their first lesson in Devoe.

Messrs. Osterhout & Lockwood painted the Presbyterian parsonage; estimated 30 gallons; took 22.

Messrs. Slingerland & Shutter painted the Episcopal church; estimated 40 gallons; took 25.

Some painters painted the Catholic church; estimated 50 gallons; took 39.

Of course, they estimated from what they had been using. The saving in paint and work is $4 or $5 a gallon. Total saving on three jobs $125 to $250—the painting costs two or three times as much as the paint, you know. Yours truly,

Today's Telegraphic News

Pursuing Retreating Russians.

Tokio, March 13.—A dispatch which has just been received here says: "Our forces drove the enemy completely out of the districts twenty-five miles north of Mukden yesterday. We are still pursuing the Russians in all directions, inflicting heavy damage on the defeated enemy. The Russians abandoned countless carts of supplies and ammunition. One of the Russian officers of the Port Arthur garrison has been arrested for breaking his parole. The officer left Shanghai and went to Sinminting."

St. Petersburg, March 13.—Dispatches received here from Tieling Pass state that the Russians are nearing that point this morning. Japanese are moving north from Mukden in detachments.

Glasgow, March 13.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Herald wires that an unpublished official report shows that the Russian losses in the recent fighting number 200,000 men, including the prisoners, and 500 guns. The public, which is just beginning to learn the extent of the disaster, is very much incensed over General Kuropatkin's earlier optimistic dispatches.

Tokio, March 13.—The latest dispatches from the front show that the Japanese are following up their advantage gained in the previous days of severe fighting and are keeping up a relentless pursuit of the flesing Russians. The Russian losses are being increased constantly, and the victorious Japanese continue to seize great quantities of stores, amunition, and supplies of all kinds which have been abandoned by the enemy in his flight. The entire district formerly held by the Russians for 25 miles north of Mukden has been completely cleared of the enemy. The Russians who succeeded in making their escape from the Japanese are hurrying toward Tieling, with the victorious armies in close pursuit on both flanks. The heavy guns have been turned on the enemy with terrible effect. There has been no time for Marquis Oyama's forces to even estimate their spoils or to count their prisoners. It is apparent, however, that at least half of Gen. Kuropatkin's troops has been killed, wounded of captured, or the demoralized remnant of those who were cut off from their divisions driven into the hills. The pursuit of these bands is being kept up diligently, and it is believed that all must eventually fall into the hands of the Japanese.

The news of the latest movement of the armies is contained in an official dispatch from the Japanese field headquarters, which says:

"All our forces have advanced north, pursuing the enemy in all directions and inflicting heavy damage, and they have defeated the enemy for attempted resistance at various places. Our forces have completely cleared the enemy out of the districts twenty-five miles north of Mukden and on Sunday were still pursuing them. The Russians abandoned countless carts of supplies and ammunition in the district for thirteen miles from the vicinity of Kaolitun, south of Chiulikotzu, west of the railway and sixteen miles north of Mukden. There has been no time yet to count them. Additional stores intended for the Russians have been seized at Sinminting."

Berlin, March 13.—A telegram from St. Petersburg says that strong agitation has been started on the Bourse and in commercial circles looking toward peace.

Telegrams received in London from the Continental capitals show that the general opinion in Europe is that Russia's power in the far East is now crushed beyond any chance of re-establishment. The hope is expressed everywhere that the Czar will conclude peace for humanity's sake.

Seeking Their Old Places.

New York, March 13.—There was no let up today in the push of Interborough strikers to get back their jobs on the subway and "L" roads. They flocked to the office of the company in the Park Row building by the hundreds. The same routine that prevailed Saturday was followed. The men filed applications and were told the company would send for them if wanted. The company is re-employing the old men slowly, but the indications are that between two thousand and three thousand of them will eventually find their way back to their places. There are many pathetic scenes as the strikers come back looking for jobs. Some of the men in making application tell, with shaking voice and tears in their eyes, the story of their part in the strike. These men were opposed to the strike, but were outvoted at the union meeting by their fellows. They are generally men with families who have already felt the wolf at the door. The service in the subway and on the "L" roads was poor again this morning. The green men run their trains at half the speed of the old motormen, and, as new trains go on, blocks and long delays result. For this reason it would not be surprising to see a great many of the old men back on the roads before many days pass.

Will Probably Commute Sentence.

Hackensack, N. J., March 13.—Another woman, who is facing death at the hands of the hangman, has, unofficially, been given renewed hope for her life. She is Mrs. Anna Valentina, an Italian woman, convicted of slaying her rival, Rogina Salza. The Supreme Court recently denied her a new trial, but intimations have come that the Board of Pardons will take up her case and that her sentence will be commuted to imprisonment for life. Governor Stokes will undoubtedly consent to this, as he has expressed himself as being unwilling to have a woman hanged in this State. Counsel for the woman believe that the mercy shown Mrs. Kate Edwards, in Pennsylvania, and Mary Rogers, in Vermont, should be shown the unfortunate Italian woman in New Jersey.

Russia's Domestic Affairs.

St. Petersburg, March 11.—The Grand Dukes are very much disturbed over the developments of Russian domestic affairs. Grand Duke Constantine, president of the Academy of Science, was recently insulted in a very rude manner by fourteen members of the Academy, who signed a protest against the present regime. Two of the members have resigned as the result of his action, and the others are expected to follow their course.

Cordova on Trial.

New Brunswick, N. J., March 13.—The indictment for abandonment against J. F. Cordova, the eloping pastor, was moved by Prosecutor Berdine, this morning, before Judge Strong. The court room was crowded to overflowing. Lawyer Cook moved for a postponement on the ground that Harry Dudley, of Brooklyn, a brother-in-law of Mrs. Cordova, was assaulted by a negro Wednesday night, and is confined in a hospital. Judge Strong declined to postpone the case. Lawyer Cook then moved to quash the indictment on several grounds, but this motion were overruled. The trial then proceeded.

Judge Strong said; "It makes no difference in this State whether a juror has read newspaper accounts, and even if he has made up his mind from such accounts, adversely to the defendant, it does not bar him. Jurors are supposed to be intelligent enough to disregard newspaper report and go by the sworn evidence. It does not take us a week or month in New Jersey to get a jury in a simple little case."

Mrs. Elizabeth Cordova was called as the first witness. Cordova kept his eyes on his wife while she was on the stand.

She said they had three children and that prior to her husband leaving her at South River on May 17, he had said he was going for good, and she would never see him again. She had married Cordova on May 26th, 1891, and the marriage certificate was offered in evidence.

Mrs. Cordova said her husband earned $700 at the time he left her.

Judge Strong admitted two letters sent by Cordova to Mrs. Cordova urging her to get a divorce. In these he said he cared for the children only.

Banks Robbed.

Toledo, March 13.—The Bank of Genoa, at Genoa, Ohio, was robbed of $3,000 early this morning. Two charges of dynamite were required to blow the outer doors and the strong box inside the safe. The safe was completely wrecked, a portion of the door being blown from the building and across the street. The robbers hastily gathered up all the money in the bank, amounting to $3,000. Notes to the amount of $73,000 were taken by the robbers. These were not negotiable. Two rigs were stolen from an adjacent barn and with these the four men escaped.

Paducah, Ky., March 13.—Burglars entered the bank of Benton, at Benton, this morning, blew open the vault, and stole $4,000. An entrance was effected by breaking open the front door. The burglars escaped on a handcar, which was found three miles from this city. It is supposed they caught a Illinois Central train.

Situation in the East

Manchester, Eng., March 13.—The Dispatch understands that Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria, before leaving London concluded an important arrangement with Lord Landsdowne, secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, relative to the situation in the near east. The Turkish army is being mobilized in anticipation of a war between Turkey and Bulgaria, because Bulgarian is the headquarters of the Macedonia revolutionary movement. Another insurrection is expected and it is feared an outbreak will come before the end of the month, hence, Prince Ferdinand's tour of European capitals.

Terrible Accident.

Geneva, N. Y., March 13.—Herman Funstoon had his skull fractured and nearly every bone in his body broken at the Summit Stove Foundry this morning by being caught in a shafting in the cellar. His cries attracted the attention of other workmen, who stopped the machinery and cut him down. He will die. He only commenced work at the factory last week.

Page Arrested

Berlin, March 13.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg says the senior page at Tsarskoe Seloe, the personal attendant of the Czar, has been arrested. An investigation revealed the fact that the page was in regular communication with the revolutionists, and that he had chemical mixtures within the palace. The investigation will be carried further.

Attempted Assassination.

St. Petersburg, March 13.—News has reached here of the attempted assassination of the Chief of Police at Minsk. A shot was fired at the official, but he escaped. A Cossack officer is reported to have been assassinated at Krementchug.

Fire on Troops.

London, March 13.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Lahore, India, states that during the military manoeuvres in the Peshawar district shots were fired on the troops from the Afridi border.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, March 13.

SENATE.

The open session of the Senate today lasted but seven minutes. A translation of the constitution of Santo Domingo presented by Mr. Morgan was ordered printed.

The galleries were then cleared and the doors closed for the further consideration of the Santo Domingo treaty, upon which it is hoped final action may be taken this week.

Senator Teller made a speech in favor of having the debate on the treaty in open session. He said that the country ought to know the reason which actuated the Senate committee in amending the treaty.

Mr. Teller however, said that he realized that if he were to move to have the doors thrown open the traditions of the Senate would prevail against it. He therefore modified it so as to provide for the administration of sworn stenographers to take a record of the debate so that it would be available for the future. The question was put to a vote and was lost.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

With only eight more days of the Deleware legislature it looks as if the election of a United States Senator has been blocked by Addicks.

Six persons were injured, some of them seriously, as the result of a collision between a southbound Third avenue surface car in New York and a truck loaded with fire brick, this morning.

Caught beneath a falling brick wall on the old furnace property of the Eastern Steel Company, at Pottsville, Pa., today, Edward Ryan aged 34 years, was crushed out of all semblance to a human being his death being instantaneous.

Ten persons were injured as a result of a collision between a Missouri Pacific passenger train on the Denver and Rio Grande, and a Denver and Rio Grande passenger train, at Fountain, fourteen miles south of Colorado Springs, today.

Two dead and a third dying is the result of last night's fire at 1014 north Washington street, Baltimore, which broke out just before midnight in the first floor, occupied as a grocery store. The store, dwelling and stock were damaged to the extent of $2,000.

Mrs. Chadwick Guilty.

In Cleveland, Ohio, Saturday night, Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick was found guilty of conspiring to defraud the United States by procuring the certification of checks on a national bank when there were no funds in the bank to her credit. She was found guilty on every count of of the indictment upon which the jury was at liberty to judge her—seven in all. Under the law she can be fined on each count, not more than $10,000 or imprisonment not more than two years, or she may be fined a maximum of $70,000 and also imprisoned for 14 years. The government moved for sentence but the defence moved for a new trial and arguments on these motions will be heard in a day or two.

A Society Girl Weds a Burglar.

Sherman W. Morris, alias Frank Shercliffe, the notorious Des Moines, Ia., criminal who served a sentence in the penitentiary for committing the famous Pollock diamond robbery 12 years ago, and who is to be the principal witness for the State at the trial of Tom Dennison, the Omaha gambler, on the charge of complicity in the diamond robbery and of receiving stolen goods, Saturday eloped with Miss May Bergstrom, a well-known and popular young society woman of Highland Park, a suburb of Des Moines. They were married in Marshalltown, the Rev. E. B. Jones performing the ceremony.

New York Stock Market.

New York, March 13. 11 a. m.—Speculation has been very heavy. The feature of the first hour has been enormous speculative profit taking on long stocks. London sent an excellent market and the arbitrage houses bought here as fast as they could sell abroad. The differences were sometimes quite extreme. London has been the pricipal buyer of Southern Railway. Anaconda has lost 3 per cent. and Chespeake and Ohio has averaged a net loss.

The coming session of the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South at Winchester on March 22 will doubtless be of an interesting character.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, LOUISA J. PENN, who died March 13, 1904—one year ago today.

"Grant her, O Lord, eternal rest, and may light perpetual shine upon her."

"Over our hearts in the year that has flown
No love like yours, mother, ever has shown.
No other worship abides and endures
Faithful, unselfish and patient like yours.
Yet with strong yearning and passionate pain
Long we tonight for your presence again.
Tired of the hollow, the base, the untrue,
Mother, oh, mother, our hearts long for you."

The Glass Blowers.

The glass blowers of the three factories in Alexandria had a red letter night on Saturday evening, the occasion being the official visit of Mr. Dennis A. Hayes, the national president of the Glass Bottle Blowers' Association of America, to Branch No. 68, of that order, in this city. After a business session in Sarepta Hall the members of the branch and a number of invited guests proceeded to Odd Fellows' Hall, where a sumptuous banquet had been prepared. Covers were laid for over one hundred and the tables were beautifully decorated, Rammel Brothers, of the New Hotel Rammel, being the caterers. The menu was as follows:

New York rockaways, raw; queen olives, celery, nominies, fried; roast turkey, cranberry sauce; ham, smoked beef, tongue, chicken a la normande; shrimp, vinaigarette; Florida tomatoes, gherkins, cold slaw, chow chow, Saratoga chips, pearl onions, cafe noir and cigars.

As the members stood around the festal board Chaplain Stokeley of the order invoked a blessing and after full justice had been done the banquet Mr. Edward I. Reeves, the toastmaster, rapped for order and presented Mr Hayes, who delivered an interesting and instructive address on the objects of unionized labor, and pointed out the advantages of the glass blowers' union, both to the mechanic and the employer. Mr. Hayes' speech was listened to with marked attention and during its delivery he was frequently applauded.

Addresses were also made by State Senator Lewis H. Machen, Delegate James R. Caton, Mayor Paff, ex-Mayor Simpson, Mr. M. S. Belt, president of the Alexandria Trades Council; Mr. Nicholas Cassabone, president of Branch 68; Mr. J. T. Sweeney, president of the Board of Aldermen, and Mr. Hubert Snowden, president of the Common Council. Messrs. Belt and Cassabone made interesting statements of the operations of the trades unions in this city. Congressman Swanson who was expected was unable to be present on account of a previous engagement. It was midnight before the banquet closed and even then the assemblage was loth to disperse, so enjoyable an evening had they all spent. During the evening excellent music was discoursed by Padgetts band. Among the guests were Messrs. Lewis Steeleman, Joseph H. Ramsay, George Schwarzman, C. S. Bassett, L. Wolford, George D. Hopkins, E. A. Thompson, Peter Astryke, Henry Schnell, and John S. Bordner, proprietors and officers of the several glass factories, and Messrs. J. T. Harrison and R. E Knight. The officers of Branch No. 68 are Nicholas Cassabone, president; Joseph Edwards, vice president; Theodore V. Ale, recording secretary, William Wells, financial secretary, and Frank Michaelbach, treasurer.

Mr. Hayes was called upon by a number of members of the local branch yesterday morning at the New Hotel Rammel. Later he left for Washington, where he will remain a week or ten days on business connected with the American Federation of Labor, of which he is the sixth vice president. Next Sunday morning Mr. Hayes and the members of the local branch of the bottle blowers' association will attend services at Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, when Rev. Samuel Stokeley, a member of the banch, will deliver a special sermon.

Death of Old Resident.

Mr. Andrew Sullivan, an old, well-known and popular citizen, died at his home on north Royal street, at an early hour this morning. The deceased had recently been critically ill from an incurable disease of the stomach. He leaves a widow and five children—three sons and two daughters. Mr. Sullivan was 68 years old. The deceased was a son of the late Andrew Sullivan, who was a coachtrimmer by occupation, and who for many years was employed by the late R. F. Prettyman. The family many years ago lived on the north side of Cameron street, near Washington. The deceased at the outbreak of the civil war was a member of Kemper's Battery, and left here with that command on the 24th of May, 1861. He served throughout the four years' conflict, and after having returned to his native home became a huckster in the city market, an occupation he had since followed. He was a member of R. E. Lee Camp, of the Friendship Veteran Fire Association and for many years had been a faithful and consistent member of the Methodist Protestant Church. His funeral will take place on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Previous to his death he had expressed a desire to be buried in the gray uniform of the veterans, and that the flag of the camp be used at his funeral; also that the organization attend in a body. He had selected the following comrades as pallbearers: Messrs. C. S. Taylor, James Hammond, G. W. Ramsay, J. C. Milburn, E. C. Graham and P. F. Gorman. His requests will be carried out in all respects.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

A colored boy, arrested by Officer Bettis charged with assaulting another colored youth, was dismissed.

Patrick Duffey, arrested by Officer Bettis charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

David Brown arrested by Officer Allen charged with improper conduct, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

John Entwisle, arrested by Officer Knight charged with disorderly conduct on an electric train and with destroying property, forfeited $25 by failing to appear.

Three Norwegian sailors, arrested by Officers Knight and Mayhugh charged with violating the law providing for the separation of races in cars, were dismissed.

The seine haulers in this vicinity are catching large numbers of fish.

Attempt to Burn a Stable.

About 11 o'clock last Saturday night another attempt was made to burn the stable in the block bounded by Commerce, Prince, Fayette and Payne streets. An attempt was made to destroy this stable about the same hour on the previous Saturday night. Mr. F. A. Coakley saw a man leave the premises shortly before the fire broke out. He was unable to see whether he was white or black. The stable was found to be burning in two places, but the fire had made very little headway and was soon extinguished, chemical extinguishers from the Reliance engine-house being used for the purpose. Yesterday Officers Mayhugh and Young arrested a negro named Hillary Brown on suspicion of being the incendiary. Brown was brought before the Police Court this morning when Sarah Gibson, colored, who lives close to the stable, positively identified the prisoner as the man she saw prowling about the stable previous to the outbreak of the fire. Other witnesses testified, but they could not positively identify the accused. Brown in his statement attempted to prove an alibi, but his statement was at variance with the story he told the officers when arrested. Justice Caton continued the case until tomorrow morning.

Struck by Trains.

Two wagons were struck by north bound trains near the intersection of King and Henry streets this morning. Between 8 and 9 o'clock, just as a north bound passenger train of the Southern Railway was nearing the intersection, the horse attached to Harrison & Brother's bread wagon, which was standing west of the track, deliberately walked in front of the advancing train. Mr. J. R. Jasper, the flagman, endeavored to stop the animal, but it walked on until it was struck by the engine and knocked down upon Mr. Jasper. The latter, fortunately, received no serious injury, nor did the horse, but the right front wheel of the wagon was broken, as was also the axle. The horse had been left for a few moments in front of a residence by the driver, Mr. Firm Brawner.

About half-past ten o'clock a wagon belonging to Mr. James McCuen was struck and demolished by a train on Henry street a few yards north of the scene of the first accident. Mr. J. H. McCuen, son of the owner, had charge of the wagon. He escaped uninjured, and the horse received no serious damage.

Accused Dismissed.

Three members of the crew of the Norwegian bark lying at the foot of Duke street left Washington yesterday evening on an electric train for this city. They were seated in the portion of the car allotted to colored passengers, and when the train had passed over the Long Bridge the conductor requested them to move forward. The three men, none of whom could speak English, smiled and retained their seats, and the conductor later repeated his request. The sailors again smiled, and the conductor, supposing they were defying the law, turned them over to the police. After they had been taken to the station house they were allowed to leave, the captain promising to deliver them in court this morning. Justice Caton heard the case this morning and promptly dismissed the accused.

Forfeited His Collateral.

John Entwisle, an upper King street druggist, became disorderly on an electric train Saturday evening on the way from Washington to this city, and Officer Knight, who was aboard, became the subject of his abuse. He had previously had an altercation with the officer while in Washington. Entwisle applied various ugly epithets to Mr. Knight, and subsequently acted in an indecent manner. He also spat upon the floor and caused a breaking of a window. The officer took him in charge after the arrival of the train in this city. Entwisle left $25 as collateral for his appearance this morning, but was non est inventus when the case was called in the Police Court.

Young Women Attacked.

Miss Lucy Ponnet and a younger sister, daughters of Mr. Constant Ponnet, a well-known florist, were accosted about 10 o'clock last Saturday night, on Duke street extended (West End), by a negro youth, who attempted to take from them a hand satchel containing a sum of money. In the struggle the satchel was pulled open and a number of coins were scattered on the ground. Miss Ponnet clung to the satchel tenaciously, and when the screams of the two girls brought assistance the negro ran. There is no clue to his identity. The Misses Ponnet were on their way home from this city, and the satchel contained the receipts of the florist shop their father conducts in this city.

A Special Showing of the New Silks.

The past week marked the completed shipments of the new Spring and Summer Silks, in both imported and domestic weaves. These new silks present exquisite combinations in colorings and designs.

Our stock has been selected with much more than ordinary care, and presents a splendid showing of all the new silks.

Our large stock of Foulards represents exclusive designs of foreign and domestic makers.

No woman's wardrobe will be complete this season without a Foulard gown, a fact strongly argued by fashion dictators abroad.

Many women are having their spring and summer silk gowns made now, as it is much easier to get dressmakers to make up dresses for Easter and warm weather before the invariable rush sets in.

Many designs are exclusive and shown only here.

Novel Strike on Italian Railway.

The Italian railway employes are adopting novel means to further their demands for better conditions. They have decided not to leave work, but to pursue a policy of obstruction. This lies in observing to the letter the regulations of the railways. All sorts of delays are brought about by following the minutest detail of routine. Tickets are checked with studied deliberation; trains do not leave the stations until every passenger is seen safely inside and the doors have all been closed with scrupulous care. Passengers are not left behind if by any means a short delay will help them enter the trains. The result is that the whole system is becoming rapidly disorganized. Time tables are completely upset, and, as the disturbance has taken place in the height of the tourist season, the effect is very serious. Many English visitors are being seriously inconvenienced, particularly at Florence, Rome and Naples. Furious protests against delays are answered by the imperturbable employes drawing attention to the fact that they are merely adhering to the rules of the service.

Babe Heir to 30,000 Acres.

Joy bells are ringing at "Burghley House by Stamford Town," the scene of Tennyson's famous poem, "The Lord of Burghley." A son and heir has been born to the Marquis of Exeter, and the Marchioness and her child are doing well. This fortunate infant will inherit Burghley House and nearly thirty thousand acres, in addition to a splendid town house in Ashley Gardens. But for his timely advent the title and estates would have descended to Lord Exeter's cousin, Ean Cecil, son of the late Lord Francis Cecil. The Marquis of Exeter is 28 years of age, and is, of course, descended from Queen Elizabeth's famous Lord High Chancellor. He married the Marchioness in 1901. She was the Hon. Myra Rowena Sibell Orde-Powlett, eldest daughter of the fourth Lord Bolton. The Marchioness of Exeter is a great beauty, as her mother—a daughter of the Earl of Scarborough—was before her.

Like Finding Money.

Finding health is like finding money—so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat or chest irritation, better act promply like W. C. Barber, of Sandy Level, Va. He says: "I had a terrible chest trouble, caused by smoke and coal dust on my lungs; but, after finding no relief in other remedies, I was cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds." Greatest sale of any cough or lung medicine on earth. At E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store; 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.

Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and by the proper treatment of these diseases a threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off. There is no question whatever about this, as during the thirty years and more that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used, we have yet to learn of a single case of a cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used. It is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results." Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

A Dinner Invitation.

After a hearty meal a dose of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will prevent an attack of Indigestion. Kodol is a thorough digestant and a guaranteed cure for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gas on the Stomach, Sour Risings, Bad Breath and all stomach troubles. N. Watkins, Lesbus, Ky., says: "I can testify to the efficacy of Kodol in the cure of Stomach Trouble. I was afflicted with Stomach Trouble for fifteen years and have taken six bottles of your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which has entirely cured me. The six bottles were worth $1,000 to me." Sold by all druggists.

Nothing will cure Indigestion that dosen't digest the food and give the stomach a rest, It isn't necessary to starve yourself in order to rest your stomach—take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It will digest any quantity of all the wholesome food you want to eat while your stomach takes a rest—recuperates and grows strong. This wonderful preparation is justly entitled to all of its many remarkable cures. Sold by all druggists.
